IN FLANDERS FIELDS

In Flanders fields the poppies blow

Between the crosses, row on row

That mark our place; and in the sky

The larks, still bravely singing, fly

Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the Dead. Short days ago

We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,

Loved and were loved, and now we lie

In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe:

To you from failing hands we throw

The torch; be yours to hold it high.

If ye break faith with us who die

We shall not sleep, though poppies grow

In Flanders fields.

Many brave men and women fought for our freedom and gave the ultimate sacrifice. Remember them this weekend and . . .

May God Bless America!!

+POSTLUDE

We welcome to the pulpit this morning Mr. Bryce Behnke. Bryce is one of our own here at St. Paul. He sings in the choir and is the teacher for our new Sunday School Class for young adults. Bryce is answering God’s call to ministry and is entering the Candidacy Process for Ordination. This process begins with the approval of the Staff Parish Relations Committee of ones own local church. The SPRC approved Bryce back in January of this year as a candidate for ministry and he will now begin working through the District and Conference Boards of Ordained Ministry to complete this process. He has been accepted into the Candler School of Theology of Emory University and will begin his theological studies this fall. Please keep Bryce in your prayers as this process will take over 5 years to complete.

And in memory of those from St. Paul UMC who gave
The ultimate sacrifice so that we might be free*
