PEACE THAT PASSES ALL UNDERSTANDING

I am neither physicist nor meteorologist; however, I have read that a dense fog that covers a seven-city block area of one hundred feet deep is composed of less than one glass of water divided into sixty thousand million drops. Not much is there but, until it dissipates, it can cripple an entire city. Worry and anxiety are like that. Just a glass full can cripple your life. At the moment when Martha needed most to stop . . . put down her cares and concerns . . . she did not. She kept busy as her sister, Mary, sat at the feet of Jesus and listened to what He was saying. Martha missed out on the great moment of her life. Why? The roast was in the oven.

Too often we, like Martha, concern ourselves with worries and are distracted by many things, and as the result we miss out on the greater things. When Martha complained to Jesus that Mary was not helping her, Jesus said, "Mary has chosen the better part, which will not be taken from her."

Lay aside your worries, put aside your "To Do" list and in this time of worship let Jesus fill you with His peace, the peace that only Jesus can give.

Calvin

July 18, 2010

8:45 & 11:00 a.m.

PRELUDE

WELCOME & ANNOUNCEMENTS

CALL TO WORSHIP (8:45)

Leader: Christ calls His church to be in ministry. Sometimes that ministry involves busy activity. Other times it means quiet meditation.

People: We have been involved in both. But we get upset when others avoid the difficult tasks that must be done.

Leader: Perhaps we misinterpret the ministry Christ is asking for, just as Martha did when she became upset with Mary who would not help her.

People: We need to understand more about the ministry Jesus is asking of us that we may serve according to His will, not ours.
