MOTHER'S DAY 2010

Former President Jimmy Carter, speaking at Southern Methodist University, related an incident that occurred after he left the White House. A woman reporter traveled to the little town of Plains, Georgia for the purpose of interviewing "Miss Lillian" Carter, the former President's mother, in relation to an article she was writing about Mr. Carter and his family. Miss Lillian really didn't care about another interview, but being gracious she agreed to meet with the reporter. When the reporter arrived and knocked on the door, Mrs. Carter answered the door and invited her in.

The reporter began asking questions. As she went along, the questions became harder and harder to the point of becoming aggressive and rude.

"I have another question," said the reporter. "Your son ran for the presidency on the premise that he would always tell the truth. Has he ever lied?" Mrs. Carter answered, "I think he's truthful; I think you can depend on his word." The reporter pushed harder, "So, has he ever lied in his entire life?" "Well," said Mrs. Carter, "I guess maybe he's told little white lies."

"Ah, see there!" the reporter exclaimed, "he's lied! If he told a white lie, he has lied." Feeling that she was now on to something, being aggressive and still not satisfied, the reporter asked, "What is a white lie?" "Well," Mrs. Carter said, "it's like a moment ago when you knocked on the door and I went to the door and said I was glad to see you."

I'm glad to see you on this Mother's Day as we gather here at St. Paul for worship . . . and that's no lie!

Wesley Woods Mother's Day Offering

Mother's Day is Sunday, May 9, 2010. United Methodists from across North Georgia will be taking up an offering for Wesley Woods. When you come to receive Communion, please be generous with what you leave on the Altar Rail. Wesley Woods provides fulfillment in old age to many United Methodists. Each day the older adults who live there prove that a full life does not require robust health, or a pain-free body, or a full bank account. Indeed, most have limited means, needing assistance to sustain their modest standard of living. Yet their lives are rich and full. This is largely because United Methodists from the North Georgia Conference give so freely to the Mother's Day Offering. Your generous offering on Mother's Day will be a "full life" blessing to the aging adults who count on Wesley Woods.

MOTHER/DAUGHTER/FRIEND TEA

Our 2nd annual Mother/Daughter/Friend tea is scheduled for May 15 from 11:00 a.m. till 1:00 p.m. Sign up sheets will be on a table in the foyer off the Fellowship Hall. Come pamper yourselves with a girl's only brunch.

PRELUDE

ANNOUNCEMENTS

WELCOME

CALL TO WORSHIP

Leader: Jesus told His disciples He would leave them, but He also promised to leave His peace with them.

People: He promised a peace that was not like the peace the world gives.

Leader: The peace the world gives affects outward circumstances only. The peace Jesus gives is from within, where the real battle begins.

People: We long for world peace, but we know it will come only when we accept the inner peace our Savior gives.
